Motor Coach Trip to Chattanooga

Saturday, May 22, 2010

All Reservations must be made and paid by March 18, by 4pm

The Tennessee Art League is sponsoring a one-day trip to Chattanooga on May 22, 2010 for members of the Tennessee Watercolor Society, the Tennessee Art League and their guests.

Guests will board a Gray Line of Nashville luxury motor coach at one of two locations: the Tennessee Art League or Brentwood. The coach will depart from the TAL Building at 7:30 a.m. and from Brentwood (at a location to be announced in next month's newsletter) at 8:00 a.m. and drive directly to Chattanooga.

The first stop will be at the Hunter Museum of American Art to view its galleries of permanent and special exhibitions. After touring the museum, lunch will be on one's own either at the museum's lovely café or a near-by restaurant of one's choice.

The final stop, and the highlight of the tour, will be attending the Opening Reception of the Biennial Exhibition of the Tennessee Watercolor Society in Chattanooga at the near-by Chattanooga State Community College. There, guests may meet with members of the TnWS and the winning, exhibiting artists, selected by the distinguished Juror George James, retired Professor of Art at California State University at Fullerton.

Enjoying a long, full day of Tennessee art at its best, guests will board the coach for the return home, arriving in Brentwood about 7:00 p.m. and Nashville about 7:30 p.m.

The cost for the day's excursion is $45 for TAL and TnWS Members and $50 for guests who are not members of either organization. The cost includes: motor coach fare, admission to the Hunter Museum of American Art, snacks on the coach, all gratuities and a donation to the TnWS. Reservations will be confirmed on a first-come-first-served basis with receipt of full payment and are non-refundable except for excursion cancellation by TAL. Guests may make reservations by phone at TAL with an AE, VISA or MC credit card (615-736-5000), by mail with a check (Tennessee Art League, 808 Broadway, Nashville, TN 37203) or in person by stopping by the TAL Office (Tue-Sat 10-4 p.m.).

Jordan served as curator and coordinated the exhibit in conjunction with her larger installation, Modern Girls, on exhibit at the Customs House Museum in Clarksville.

“Nationally, there has been an increase in the collecting and exhibiting of female artists. I wanted to feature and celebrate some of the many talented women artists that reside in Tennessee.

These women represent artists at all stages of their careers,” says Jordan. The TAL show features the work of award winners Beverly Parker, Annamaria Gundlach, and Jordan herself. Also in the exhibit are Diane Batson Smith, Breanna King, Kristina Lyle, and renowned artist Anne Bagby.
